5:30 p.m. Reception | 6:30 p.m. Dinner and Program

Distinguished Citizen Honoree

BARRY MANDEL

Chairman & CEO,
Mandel Group

Barry Mandel is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Milwaukee-based Mandel Group, a prominent developer of luxury multifamily and mixed-use communities. A Milwaukee native, Mandel has played a significant role in shaping the city's residential landscape, spearheading high-profile developments including East Pointe Commons and the North End on the Lower East Side, University Club Tower near the downtown lakefront, and Marine Terminal Lofts in the Third Ward.

Founded in 1991, Mandel Group specializes in urban infill and suburban/urban node developments, with operations in development, construction, and property management. The firm has completed numerous projects throughout Milwaukee and surrounding communities, including Caroline Heights Apartments in Elm Grove and The Corners of Brookfield. Mandel Group is also currently developing Harlow & Hem in Wauwatosa's village area.

Prior to founding Mandel Group, Mandel served as managing residential partner for Trammell Crow Residential in Wisconsin and was responsible for operations in Minneapolis. He began his career as an attorney practicing tax, corporate, and real estate law in Kansas City, Missouri. Mandel has received numerous awards for his contributions to Milwaukee and remains active in the community, including through the "I Have a Dream" Foundation, which provides social, emotional, and academic support to young people from low-income communities.
